

Don't you worry .. don't you fear.
This is not your gift this year.

Clues will lead to something good.
Start by looking in clothing with a hood.

I know this is fun .. and you think it's neat.

Look in a place where you sit to eat.

Your very last clue .. try not to peep.
Are you feeling tired? Check where you sleep.

Air tight with a hum .. I fill your tum.

You'd be a fool .. if you were this cool.

All shining and silver .. with a beautiful face.

You look into me .. and find the next place.

The next clue is in a closet I'll bet.

The more it dries .. the more it becomes wet.

Brrrrrr outside is cold and chilly!
Check the front entrance and don't be silly.

I can show you places you've never been.
But first .. type your password on my screen.

I know you're ready to come inside.
But first check the seat of the something you ride.

Don't give up .. you're almost done!
Find your gift under the things that help you run!
